(1941 - 2022)

Born	19410506, Warrawee New South Wales Australia
Died	20220214, Melbourne Victoria Australia
Occupation	Parliamentarian

Summary

Originally a member of the Australian Labor Party, Mary Willey was elected to the House of Assembly in the Parliament of Tasmania in 1979 representing the electorate of Bass. She resigned from the Labor Party in 1981 in support of the premier of the time Doug Lowe in his approach to the damming of the Franklin River. She fought the 1982 election as an Independent and was unfortunately defeated on that occasion.
