Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0226

Blake, Audrey

(1916 - 2006)

Born	19160809, Melbourne Victoria Australia
Died	20061101, Neutral Bay New South Wales Australia
Occupation	Political activist

Summary

Audrey and her husband Jack D. Blake were prominent members the Communist Party of Australia. Both were particularly vocal during the Liberal Party's assault on the CPA and Jack Blake wrote numerous articles and papers on the Cold War. Audrey was the first Secretary of the Eureka Youth League when it was formed during the Second World War.

Published resources

Book
A proletarian life, Blake, Audrey, 1984

Book Section
Recollections, Blake, Audrey, 1987

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

The University of Melbourne Archives
Interview with Audrey Blake

Blake, Audrey

Eureka Youth League

State Library of New South Wales
Audrey Blake - further papers, 1915-1998

Audrey Blake - papers, 1935-1954, 1966, mainly concerning the Eureka Youth League (Australia)

Audrey Blake and Jack Blake further papers, 1937-2004

Author Details
Clare Land

Created 19 December 2001
Last modified 22 April 2026