Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH001623

Iris Clayton looks at Institute collections, and opening of community centre in Dubbo

Repository	AIATSIS Film Collection
Date Range	1989 - 1989
Formats	Video recording
Access	Conditions apply

Details

1. Iris Clayton looks through proof sheets at AIATSIS, she identifies people she know and relatives, several members of the Johnson family, she then listens to several audio recordings ; Iris Clayton interviewed by Kim McKenzie. 2. Iris Clayton looks through library collections with younger members of her family, they spend time looking at Dawn magazine. 3. Les Darcy looks through proof sheets at AIATSIS, he identifies people he know and relatives. This video also contains footage of AIATSIS staff members, Di Hosking, Alana Harris, Carol Cooper with baby and Francesca Merlan. 4. Iris Clayton looks through the AIATSIS library collection with Alana Garwood and Les Darcy. 5. Staff soft ball game then Iris Clayton looks at AIATSIS publications. 5. Speeches at Dubbo followed by a collection display by AIATSIS for the community members in the Dubbo region, later in the video Iris Clayton talks about the Institute collection, Bill Hume is also present. 6. Speeches at Dubbo for the opening of the art and community centre, the speeches are followed by traditional dancing from the Aboriginal and Islander dance group.

Author Details
Anne Heywood

Created 28 May 2004
Last modified 6 January 2018