

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person

Entry ID: AWE0247

Edquist, Harriet

Occupation Academic

Summary

Professor of Architectural History at Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology (RMIT) University, Harriet Edquist obtained her qualifications, a BA and a MA, from Monash University in Melbourne, Victoria. Her RMIT staff profile describes her research interests as 'Australian architecture and design, particularly in late 19th and 20th century Melbourne; regionalism as an idea and practice; renaissance architecture and art, particularly 15th and early 16th century with an emphasis on perspectival theory and practice and the development of the interior'. Edquist's publications include a book on the emigre German architect Frederick Romberg and a monograph on Harold Desbrowe-Anneer.

Events

2020 - 2020

For significant service to architectural history and design, and to higher education.

Published resources

Edited Book

Planting the Nation, Whitehead, Georgina, 2001

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details

Anne Heywood

Created 30 January 2002

Last modified 5 March 2020