Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH001984

Correspondence files, Department of Prime Minister & Cabinet, annual single number series

Repository	National Archives of Australia, Sydney Office
Date Range	May-88 - Jan-95
Quantity	0 0.09 m

Details

This series consists of correspondence files of the Office of Multicultural Affairs in Tasmania. They detail the liaison of the Office with the Central Office of the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet and with the State Government, Tasmanian ethnic groups and other agencies. Upon closing of the Office in 1995 the files were transferred to the Department of Immigration and Ethnic Affairs. Information found on file includes administration of Committees and projects, information from outside agencies and groups, planning matters, reports and miscellaneous correspondence, finance matters, requests for information, staffing, accommodation, stores and services matters and policies and issues relating to the ethnic communities of Tasmania. There are no known index cards for this series.?These records were originally held in the Hobart office of the NAA and were transferred to the NAA, Chester Hill, NSW in February 2005.

Author Details
Nikki Henningham

Created 14 June 2006
Last modified 23 November 2017