

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0282

Burrows, Maggie

Occupation Political activist, Women's rights activist

Summary

Maggie Burrows commenced a law degree at Monash University, transferred to Arts and completed an honours degree in history in 1977. During this period she was active in student politics on the Public Affairs Committee, travelled to Thailand and collected Thai political posters. From 1976 her main interest was in the off-campus women's liberation movement. She participated in voluntary work at the Melbourne Rape Crisis Centre in 1976; from 1978-79 was employed at the Western Region Women's Refuge on issues such as domestic violence, public housing and tenancy law reform; 1979-81 Equal Access for Girls Project.

(Source: Historical Note University of Melbourne Archives)

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

The University of Melbourne Archives

Burrows, Maggie

Author Details

Anne Heywood

Created 6 February 2002

Last modified 29 October 2018