Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH002308

Archives of the Dominican Sisters of Eastern Australia and the Solomon Islands

Repository	Dominican Sisters of Eastern Australia and the Solomon Islands Archives
Reference
Date Range	1867
Access	Limited research facilities are available by appointment, at the discretion of the archivist. There is no general acces the stacks, and generally no lending service, but materials can be sighted and sometimes photocopied.

Details

The Archives contain records, generated by the general administrative body of the Dominican Sisters, the Sisters themselves, and the ministries of the Sisters since 1867. They take the form of papers, photographs, slides, films, videos, DVDs, legal documents, plans, maps and artefacts. There is also a large collection of digitised photographs.??There are limited records, in the form of enrolment registers, annals and some photos, for St Mary's Maitland, Star of the Sea Newcastle, St Mary's Elm Court, Moss Vale, All Hallows College Bathurst, St Dominic's Priory Tamworth, School for Deaf Girls Waratah, St Mary's Delgany School for the Deaf Portsea, St Lucy's School Homebush – schools which no longer exist.??The holdings include no files relating to the professional history of staff members of the schools and colleges currently sponsored or previously administered by the Sisters. Similarly, the Congregational Archives do not contain personal records of past or present students of these institutions.

Author Details
Nikki Henningham

Created 12 August 2009
Last modified 11 October 2017