

Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH002585

Lorna Sharp interviewed by Crieda Fitzgerald [sound recording]

Repository National Library of Australia, Oral History and Folklore Collection

Reference ORAL TRC 6308

Date Range 7-Apr-11 - 7-Apr-11

Access Access open for research, personal copies and public use.

Finding Aid Timed summary (7 p.) and uncorrected transcript (typescript, 90 leaves) available.

Details

Lorna Sharp, born in Gnowangerup, Western Australia (1934), discusses her father's experiences in WW1; her father being a 'soldier settler' and being allocated land at Jerramungup (1920); her mother and siblings; the farm and its buildings; the Depression; domestic hardships; her father's death (1939); moving to Albany; schooling; WW2; moving to Kalgoorlie (1946); her and her family's various employments; expected careers for girls; descriptions of Kalgoorlie; her mother's death; nurse training at Kalgoorlie Regional Hospital; the facilities and her duties; waitressing; bookkeeping; women's wages; widow's pensions; marriage and children; her husband's employments; accommodation; transport; domestic finances; self-sufficiency; alcoholism and gambling; domestic chores, tools and routine.??Sharp discusses entertaining friends; illness; studying to be a real estate agent; the real estate business and laws in Kalgoorlie at that time; being the first woman real estate officer in Kalgoorlie; her husband's reaction to her work; buying properties; business difficulties; mentors; her relationship with the business community in Kalgoorlie; her current business and employees; women in real estate today; grief; the effect of the resources boom on Kalgoorlie; a description of Kalgoorlie and its inhabitants today; learning to drive; reflections on women in education and paid employment; completing an Accounting Degree; political involvement; her enjoyment of the real estate business

Author Details
Crieda Fitzgerald

Created 7 August 2012
Last modified 4 January 2018