Details

MS Acc11.129 comprises four CDs containing images of original photographs and documents relating to Cotton, many of which have been reproduced and annotated by Cotton's daughter, Sally McInerney. They include correspondence (for example from Damien Parer) and photographs by Cotton, Jean Lorraine and others. The various subjects cover hand-painted pottery by Cotton's mother and images of Spring Forest. The collection also includes scans of lantern slides collected by Cotton's father in Japan in 1926 (1 folder).
