

Entry type: Cultural Artefact
Entry ID: AWE0367

Dame Elisabeth Murdoch Tapestry

(2000 -)

Born	1 January, 2000
Occupation	Commemoration

Summary

The National Portrait Gallery commissioned this woven portrait of Dame Elisabeth Murdoch, who is a trustee of the Tapestry Foundation of Victoria. The 1.5 by 1.2 metre tapestry depicts Dame Elisabeth sitting in the garden of her Langwarren home, Cruden Farm. Entitled “A weaver of magic”, it was woven by Merrill Dumbrell at the Victorian Tapestry Workshop, South Melbourne and hangs in the National Portrait Gallery in the Old Parliament House, Canberra.

Author Details
Anne Heywood

Created 10 April 2002
Last modified 16 September 2013