Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0373

Hawthorne, Susan

Occupation Feminist, Writer

Summary

Susan Hawthorne is a writer, publisher and circus performer.

With Renate Klein she established Spinifex Press, specialising in feminist publications, in the early 1990s.

Her biography on CyberFeminism states that ‘she has degrees in Philosophy and Ancient Greek Language and has taught in the fields of Philosophy, Education, Literature and Women’s Studies.’

Published resources

Edited Book
Australian Feminism: A Companion, Caine, Barbara, Gatens, Moira et al., 1998

Australia for women: travel and culture, Hawthorne, Susan and Renate Klein, 1994

Cyberfeminism: connectivity, critique and creativity, Hawthorne, Susan and Renate Klein, 1999

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of New South Wales
Dale Spender - papers, 1972-1995

Author Details
Anne Heywood

Created 17 April 2002
Last modified 16 September 2013