Details

Three notebooks: 1. Autobiographical account by immigrant Russian, "Vladimir" of events in Russia c. 1912-1914, when he and others in a radical left group were active and subsequently investigated and sentenced. The recollections, written in 1952, aim to discover the identity of the person in their group responsible for their arrest. 2 and 3. English language notes of an unknown Russian studying English c. 1917. (See copy of letter E. Govor to Juliet Flesch, 8.3.96).
