Details

Black and white photograph of two women, Muriel Matter on the left and Edith Craig on the right, walking together in Whitehall with arms linked. Craig is wearing a dark coat and wide hat, with an ermine style fur muffler and scarf. Matters is wearing a short fur jacket and a sprig of snowdrops. The photograph is pasted onto a torn piece of cream paper, and on the reverse are pasted press cuttings on suffrage activities in Glasgow.???The manuscript note on the front is presumably written by Muriel Matters.???Note: the press cuttings from the 'Glasgow Times' 1909, cover women's suffrage protests and meetings in Glasgow, and mention: Countess Russell, Mrs Pankhurst, Muriel Matters, Miss Gill, National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies, Women's Freedom League, Women's Social & Political Union Miss Bennett, Anne Munro.
