

The Australian Women's Register

---

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0853

Kitto, Joyce

(1929 - )

---

|             |  |
|-------------|--|
| Born | 1 January, 1929, Gladstone South Australia Australia |
|-------------|--|

---

|                   |                                     |
|-------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Occupation | Nurse, Nurse educator, Servicewoman |
|-------------------|-------------------------------------|

---

Summary

Joyce Kitto was born in Gladstone, South Australia. In the early 1950s Joyce became a member of the Citizens' Military Force Nursing Corps, which led to her decision to train as a nurse. In 1970 she was appointed tutor sister in charge of the newly established training school for enrolled nurses at Gleneden, Maryattville, where she remained until her retirement in 1985.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia

[Interview with Joyce Kitto \[sound recording\] Interviewer: Joan Durdin](#)

Author Details

Robin Secomb

Created 7 April 2004

Last modified 16 September 2013