Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0860

Garrett, Merla Ruth

(1933 - 2017)

Born	19330323, Sedan South Australia Australia
Died	20170403, Wayville South Australia Australia
Occupation	Lecturer, Nurse

Summary

Merla Garrett was born at Sedan, near the Barossa Valley. After two years overseas she worked in Sydney and then Mount Pleasant. In 1962 she left South Australia for Papua New Guinea where she served as a missionary nurse for 18 years. Since 1981 Merla has been a lecturer at the School of Nursing, Sturt College (now Flinders University of South Australia). Her extra curricular activities include several assignments with the World Health Organization.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia
Interview with Merla Garrett [sound recording] Interviewer: Joan Durdin

Author Details
Robin Secomb

Created 8 April 2004
Last modified 14 May 2019