Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0865

Michelmore, Catherine

(1910 - 2002)

Born	19100101
Died	20020527
Occupation	Nurse, Nurse educator, Nursing administrator

Summary

Catherine Michelmore was born in Adelaide. She began training at the Adelaide Children's Hospital (ACH) after the outbreak of war in 1939. In 1947 she returned to the ACH she set up and conducted the first Preliminary Training School in South Australia. In 1960 she was appointed Deputy Matron at the ACH, from which post she retired in 1970. Miss Michelmore served as a council member of the Royal College of Nursing, Australia, and in 1965 was National President of the College.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia
Interview with Catherine Michelmore [sound recording] Interviewer: Joan Durdin

Author Details
Robin Secomb

Created 8 April 2004
Last modified 11 September 2015