Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0866

Parker, Barbara

(1934 -)

Born	19340101, Adelaide South Australia Australia
Occupation	Nurse

Summary

Barbara Parker, née North, was born in Adelaide. She became a tutor (unqualified) at Ru Rua Hospital in the late 1960s and moved from there to a part-time appointment with the Public Health Department (PHD). In 1970 she became a full time member of the staff of the Occupational Health Branch of the PHD, where she is still employed. Barbara Parker has been actively involved in the professional affairs of nursing including the Occupational Health Nurses' Association.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia
Interview with Barbara Parker [sound recording] Interviewer: Joan Durdin

Author Details
Robin Secomb

Created 8 April 2004
Last modified 16 September 2013