Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0867

Sturm, Doreen Nellie (Anne)

(1914 - 1991)

Born	19140101, Adelaide South Australia Australia
Died	19911001
Occupation	Nurse

Summary

Doreen Nellie Sturm, commonly known as Anne, was born in Adelaide, South Australia. She completed training at the Royal Adelaide Hospital in 1937. Anne spent the early years of the war in private nursing in Melbourne, Victoria. Returning to Adelaide in 1943 she worked at the Truby King Mothercraft League of South Australia Clinic for two years. She was also an active member of various nursing organizations.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia
Interview with Anne Sturm [sound recording] Interviewer: Joan Durdin

Author Details
Robin Secomb

Created 8 April 2004
Last modified 31 March 2017