The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0882

Gibbs, Vera Eva

(1905 - 1997)

Born	19050325, Glanville, Port Adelaide South Australia Australia
Died	19970329
Occupation	Community worker, Nurse

Summary

Vera Gibbs was born at Port Adelaide, South Australia. In 1946 she was nominated by the Australian Nursing Federation for an appointment with the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, which took her to Germany and Poland in the immediate post-war period. Gibbs was Matron at the Darwin hospital and held a senior post at the Royal Adelaide Hospital. On her retirement she began private palliative care nursing.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia
Interview with Vera Gibbs [sound recording] Interviewer: Joan Durdin

Author Details
Robin Secomb

Created 15 April 2004
Last modified 14 May 2019