The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0886

Cherry, Enid

(1891 - 1986)

Born	18910101, Adelaide South Australia Australia
Died	19861231
Occupation	Nurse, Servicewoman

Summary

Enid Cherry was born in Adelaide in 1891. She served in the Australian Army Nursing Service between 1917 and 1919. In the 1920s she was appointed as an industrial nurse at Myers in Rundle Street, Adelaide. Here she remained for 23 years, as the nurse to provide care for staff and customers.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia
Interview with Enid Cherry [sound recording] Interviewer: Barbara Parker

Interview with Kathleen Turner and Enid Cherry [sound recording] Interviewer: Joan Durdin

Interview with Enid Cherry [sound recording] Interviewer: Beth M. Robertson

Author Details
Robin Secomb

Created   15 April 2004
Last modified 16 September 2013