Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0887

Jacob, Nora Elizabeth

(1900 - 1992)

Born	19000102, Adelaide South Australia Australia
Died	19921231, South Australia Australia
Occupation	Nurse

Summary

Nora Jacob was born in Adelaide, South Australia and grew up in Medindie. In 1917 the family moved to Geranium, South Australia, where her father managed the family farming property while his brother was in the army. After six years on the farm Nora went to Adelaide to begin training at Mareeba Babies Hospital. She continued her training at the Royal Adelaide Hospital, completing the course in 1927. Nora’s subsequent work was in private nursing and district nursing.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia
Interview with Nora Elizabeth Jacob [sound recording] Interviewer: Joan Durdin

Interview with Nora Elizabeth Jacob [sound recording] Interviewer: Beth M. Robertson

Author Details
Robin Secomb

Created 15 April 2004
Last modified 16 May 2019