Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0890

Rowe, Millie (Min)

(1897 - 2008)

Born	18970331, Tiparra South Australia Australia
Died	20081117, North Adelaide South Australia Australia
Occupation	Nurse

Summary

Millie Rowe (Min) was born near Kadina in South Australia. She recovered from tuberculous peritonitis in her late teen years, and was accepted for nursing training at the Wakefield Street Private Hospital, Adelaide, in 1917. In 1926 she became Matron of Wakefield Street Private Hospital, a position which she occupied until her retirement in 1946. She was an active member of the Australian Trained Nurses Association.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia
Interview with Millie Rowe [sound recording] Interviewer: Joan Durdin

Author Details
Robin Secomb

Created 15 April 2004
Last modified 25 September 2026