Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0930

Hannon, Gwenyth

(1909 - 2008)

Born	19090101, Medindie South Australia Australia
Died	20080813
Occupation	Dentist

Summary

Gwenyth Hannon attended St Peter's Girls' School. Hannon won an Education Department scholarship to dentistry at University. Following her graduation, in 1932, she became an Education Department dentist. In this position she travelled around the state doing dental work at schools. She married a fellow dental student who had a practice on North Terrace. Hannon worked in the dental practice from the war years. Her husband was killed in 1945 and Hannon was one of the initial members and one of the first vice presidents of the War Widows' Guild.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia
Interview with Gwenyth Hannon [sound recording] Interviewer: Barbara Drake

Author Details
Anne Heywood and Robin Secomb

Created 22 April 2004
Last modified 7 August 2015