Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE1146

Groom, Charlotte Ellen

(1866 - 1955)

Born	18660223, Erith Kent England
Died	19551026, Perth Western Australia Australia
Occupation	Red Cross Worker, Stenographer

Summary

Charlotte Groom was a member of the Red Cross Women’s Service Corps in Western Australia for approximately 52 years. She was also a short-term member of the Voluntary Aid Detachment and one of Adelaide’s first female stenographers.

In 1950, at the age of 83, Charlotte received a concussion in a bus accident, which saw a fellow Red Cross worker killed.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details
Elle Morrell and Alannah Croom

Created 14 February 2005
Last modified 9 June 2026