Summary

A member of the Australian Labor Party, Lidia Argondizzo was elected as the Member for Templestowe in the Legislative Council of the Parliament of Victoria in November 2002. Before her election to Parliament she served as Councillor for the City of Northcote 1987-93, and Mayor from 1989-90. As a result of changes to the Legislative Council which came into effect at the 2006 election, she stood as a candidate in the Legislative Assembly seat of Doncaster at that election, but was unsuccessful.
