Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE1529

Csanki, Sharyn

(1964 -)

Born	19640101
Occupation	Project manager

Summary

Sharyn Csanki is a loyal advocate for the Australian Democrats who ran for the New South Wales Legislative Assembly in Wallsend in 2003.

Details

Sharyn Csanki lived in the Newcastle suburb of Waratah when she stood for the adjoining seat of Wallsend in 2003. She was candid that her standing would assist in increasing the vote for the Australian Democrats candidates in the Legislative Council. In the event, she polled 2.2 % of the vote and ran last in a field of seven. Sharyn Csanki led the Australian Democrats team in the 2004 local government elections in Newcastle

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Created 12 December 2005
Last modified 16 September 2013