

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: PR26022493

Music to Their Ears

Type Site exhibition

Imprint Australian Women's Archives Project 2019

URL <https://www.womenaustralia.info/exhib/music>

Details

This exhibition tells the story of Alexandra Cameron MBE, Victoria's first Secondary School Inspector of Music, Margaret McCarthy, the first librarian appointed to the Victorian String Music Library and Judy Hall OAM, legendary Gippsland-based music teacher who fulfilled her lifelong dream of playing in the Melbourne Town Hall at the age of ninety-six. An accompanying essay outlines the history of music education in the state of Victoria.

Created 24 February 2026
Last modified