

The Australian Women's Register

---

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE1851

Huxley, Keri

---

Occupation Community advocate, Editor, Local government councillor, Mayor, Writer

---

Summary

Keri Huxley's involvement in the formal political process spans several years and has included taking on the challenge of winning the unwinnable (for the Liberal Party) seat of Port Jackson in the state election of 1999. She was a Woollahra Councillor for nine years, serving as Mayor in 2006-2009.

Keri was also a founding member of the Yes! Republican movement in New South Wales, a cause to which she is still committed. She has delivered papers at the Australian Women's Round Table and has worked for electoral reform on behalf of Women into Politics. She still maintains an active interest in politics at a local and community level.

Details

Keri Huxley has been an advocate for women's issues over many years and is interested in constitutional reform. She joined the Liberal Party in 1972 and has been a delegate to State Council. In her 1999 campaign for Port Jackson, she stressed her interest in the environment, opposing a new marina at Balmain Shores and stressing her membership of the Iron Cove Preservation Committee.

She has two sons and a daughter and completed a BA at Macquarie University.

Published resources

Article

Huxley joins council exodus, Rogers, Michael, 2008,
<http://wentworth-courier.whereilive.com.au/news/story/huxley-joins-council-exodus/>

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Site Exhibition

Putting Skirts on the Sacred Benches: Women Candidates for the New South Wales Parliament, Australian Women's Archives Project, 2006, <http://www.womenaustralia.info/exhib/pssb/home.html>

The Women's Pages: Australian Women and Journalism since 1850, Australian Women's Archives Project, 2008, <http://www.womenaustralia.info/exhib/cal/cal-home.html>

Author Details

Nikki Henningham

Created 31 January 2006
Last modified 20 November 2018