Sara, Kim

Occupation Political candidate

Summary

Kim Sara only ran for election once: as a One Nation Party candidate in the 1999 New South Wales Legislative Assembly elections for Port Macquarie. She issued a press release during the campaign, very critical of the local bookshop for taking a title off its shelves. The book, “Murder by Media” (1998) described the “tricks” used by major city media against Pauline Hanson’s One Nation during the 1998 Federal election. Kim Sara declared this action undemocratic.
