Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE2038

Wareing, Imogen

Occupation Company director, Manager

Summary

Imogen Waring is a highly successful management consultant with a continuing interest in politics. In 2003 she ran for election to the New South Wales Legislative Assembly seat of Willoughby.

Details

Imogen Wareing was born and educated in England, where she completed a degree in sociology (B.Sc. (London)) and her teaching qualifications. She later completed her training in psychology in Sydney.

She has worked as a high school teacher, a human resources manager, and a management consultant. She runs her own business, The Growth Connection, consulting and providing training services to private and public organizations in strategic planning, mentoring, leadership, career management and interpersonal communication.

Imogen Wareing is a past Executive Manager of Women & Management Inc. a voluntary organization which aims to assist the personal and professional development of women. She is a founder of “Making Mentoring Connections”, a mentoring network and wrote “Guidelines on Mentoring for Women” (published 1994) for the NSW government. She has written extensively on development and career management and taken part in numerous conferences, both in Australia and overseas.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Site Exhibition
Putting Skirts on the Sacred Benches: Women Candidates for the New South Wales Parliament, Australian Women's Archives Project, 2006, http://www.womenaustralia.info/exhib/pssb/home.html

Author Details
Annette Alafaci

Created 7 February 2006
Last modified 12 June 2009