Entry type: Organisation
Entry ID: AWE2123

Australian-Polish Community Services

(1983 -)

Born	19830101, Melbourne Victoria Australia
Occupation	Migrant Welfare Organisation

Summary

Australian-Polish Community Services (APCS) is a community-based, not for profit and charitable organisation, established in 1983 in response to a perceived need for a welfare organisation assisting Polish people in the western suburbs of Melbourne, Victoria. The organisation provides home-based support services through a variety of programs and conducts research and projects to assist the evolving needs of its clients.

Published resources

Resource
Polish Migrants' Stories, Wiench, Monika and Drozd, Elizabeth, 2006, http://apcs.org.au/attachments/publications/polish_migrants_stories.pdf

Polonia in Australia: Challenges and Possibilities in the New Millenium, Drozd, Elizabeth and Cahill, Desmond, 2004, http://www.apcs.org.au/attachments/publications/Polonia_in_Australia.pdf

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details
Nikki Henningham

Created 14 June 2006
Last modified 20 November 2018