Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE3775

Hamlin, Catherine

(1924 - 2020)

Born	19240124, Sydney New South Wales Australia
Died	20200318, Addis Ababa Oromia Ethiopia
Occupation	Doctor

Summary

Catherine Hamlin boarded at Frensham School near Mittagong before gaining entry to the medical school at the University of Sydney. She worked at Sydney's Crown Street Women's Hospital, where she met her husband, Reginald Hamlin, and the two accepted a post to Ethiopia to set up a School of Midwifery. The Hamlin Fistula Relief and Aid Fund has since been established to continue the work of Catherine and Reginald.

Published resources

Book
The Complete Book of Great Australian Women: Thirty-six women who changed the course of Australia, De Vries, Susanna, 2003

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

National Portrait Gallery
Portrait of Catherine Hamlin by Nigel Brennan

Author Details
Barbara Lemon

Created 20 October 2008
Last modified 19 May 2026