(1885 -)

Born 1 January, 1885, Sydney New South Wales Australia

Occupation Educational institution

Summary

Abbotsleigh was founded by an English woman, Marian Clarke, in 1885. An Anglican school for girls, it was first located in a terrace in North Sydney. The school then moved to Parramatta in 1888, and finally to its current premises in Wahroonga.

Abbotsleigh was one of the first girls' school to have a sports field, which was opened in October 1901.
