Association of Women Employees of the University of Sydney

(1980 -)

Born	19800101, Sydney New South Wales Australia
Occupation	Academic Organisation

Summary

The Association of Women Employees of the University of Sydney (AWEUS) was formed in July 1980 to represent the interests of women on campus. It was open to all women on the university staff. An annually elected executive met to discuss matters concerning the improvement of the status of women on campus, e.g. Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) policies and childcare facilities. It also gathered information on cases of discrimination and sexual harassment.
