Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE4576

Coull, Judith

Occupation Community activist, Local government councillor, Nurse, Shire president

Summary

Judith Coull served as a councillor for the Shire of Buninyong, Victoria from 1979-94. She became the first female Shire president in 1988 and retained the position until 1990. She continues to serve her community as a member of the Board of Management of Central Highlands Water, president of the Ballarat YMCA and member of Zonta Ballarat.

Published resources

Book
Women in Australian Parliament and Local Government: An updated history 1975-1992, Decker, Dianne, 1992

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details
Rosemary Francis

Created 31 August 2010
Last modified 31 August 2010