Summary

The Australian Women’s Register has aggregated data about women in local government in Australia. Users can browse lists of councillors, mayors and lord mayors to find the names of women across Australia who have served in local government. Over three hundred women are listed, many of them with links to fully developed biographical notes. Information about their activities outside local government is also available.

Information is also about the Australian Women in Local Government Associations across Australia.

Users can access the information from browse lists accessible via the home page of the Australian Women’s Register, or through structured searches, also accessible via the home page.
