Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE4826

Crow, Kimberley

(1985 -)

Born	19850909, Melbourne Victoria Australia
Occupation	Olympian, Rower

Summary

Kimberley Crow is an Australian Olympic Champion. She won a gold medal at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janiero in Rowing, in the Women's Single Sculls.

Crow has also served as Chair of the Athlete's Commission for the Australian Olympic Committee.

In 2017 she was became a Member in the General Division of the Order of Australia 'for significant service to rowing, to the welfare of elite athletes, to sport as a gold medallist at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games, and to the community'.

Events

2017 - 2017
For significant service to rowing, to the welfare of elite athletes, to sport as a gold medallist at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games, and to the community

2016 - 2016
Rowing – Single Sculls

2012 - 2012
Rowing – women's double sculls

2012 - 2012
Rowing – women's single sculls

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details
Nikki Henningham

Created 16 August 2012
Last modified 19 February 2019