The Australian
Women's Register

Entry type: Organisation
Entry ID: AWE5962

County Court of Victoria

(1852 -)

Born 18520101, Victoria Australia

Summary

The County Court of Victoria is the intermediate court in the Victorian court hierarchy and the principal trial court in the State. County Courts were established in 1852 by the County Courts Act, which was amended in 1957 to create one County Court in, and for, the State of Victoria.

Author Details
Marina Loane

Created 19 September 2016
Last modified 10 October 2016