Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE6157

Schlunke, Juliet

(1951 -)

Born	19510101, Temora New South Wales Australia
Occupation	Artist, Author

Summary

Juliet Schlunke grew up on a sheep and wheat farm in Temora, New South Wales, until she was 16. Schlunke went to Sydney in 1967 and studied art at various technical colleges and John Olsen's Bakery Art School.

In 1976, having travelled in the United States and Europe, she settled in Madrid. Schlunke began painting fabrics in 1981 and has worked with decorators in Madrid, Studio Bach in Geneva, Paris and Provence.

Archival resources

National Library of Australia, Manuscript Collection
Papers of Juliet Schlunke, 2009 [manuscript]

National Library of Australia
[Biographical cuttings on Juliet Schlunke, artist, containing one or more cuttings from newspapers or journals]

State Library of Victoria
[Juliet Schlunke : Australian Art and Artists file]

National Gallery of Australia, Research Library Archive
[Juliet Schlunke : Art & Artist Files (Australia and New Zealand)]. / Juliet Schlunke

Author Details
Alannah Croom

Created 30 January 2018
Last modified 30 January 2018