Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE6188

Stevenson, Jean Lloyd

(1903 - 1974)

Born	19030101, Carlton Victoria Australia
Died	19740720, New South Wales Australia
Occupation	Poet, Public servant, Stenographer, Typist

Summary

Jean Stevenson was a poet and friend of Dame Mary Gilmore. She received an honourable mention in an essay competition. ‘Mary Gilmore: Dreamer and Doer’, through the Henry Lawson Memorial and Literary Society in Melbourne, in 1939. She worked as a typist at the Australian Forestry School in Canberra, the Department of Defence in Melbourne and the Department of Air in Penrith, moving to Woodford in the Blue Mountains in 1955.

Archival resources

National Library of Australia, Manuscript Collection
Papers of Jean L. Stevenson, 1932-1959 [manuscript]

State Library of New South Wales
Jean L. Stevenson further papers

Author Details
Alannah Croom, Helen Morgan and Maggie Shapley

Created 20 February 2018
Last modified 19 November 2019