Lindy was elected president in 2012. During her term as president she encouraged the understanding of concerns voiced by both Fellows and trainees, and attempted to provide answers to their questions. This quality saw her strengthen and clarify the relationship between ANZCA and the Board of the Faculty of Pain Medicine.

Lindy was also involved with curriculum and policy development as an ANZCA assessor and as chair of the ANZCA Education and Training Committee.

Outside of her medical practice, Lindy has a particular interest in classic Hollywood and film noir. She also plays the clarinet for a number of concert bands and orchestras.
