

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person

Entry ID: AWE6633

Morris, Julie

Occupation Women's advocacy

Summary

Julie Morris was national resident of the National Council of Women of Australia between 2012 and 2015.

During her paid working life (she is now retired) Morris worked in the public, private and not for profit sectors. This included 20+ years running a successful social enterprise business working with a number of small professional associations and community groups.

Events

2012 - 2015

President – National Council of Women of Australia

2020 - 2020

President – National Council of Women of New South Wales

Created 6 November 2020

Last modified 6 November 2020