

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: PR00086

Monahan, Briony

Occupation Feminist, Peace activist, social activist

Summary

Briony Monahan was a founding member of the Feminist Anti-Nuclear Group (FANG) who travelled to Greenham Common and the peace camp at Comiso, Sicily. Briony was also involved in FANG's peace camp at Smithfield, South Australia, and corresponded with the group while overseas.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia

Feminist Anti-Nuclear Group \(FANG\) records

Author Details

Katey Bereny

Created 18 December 2009

Last modified 15 December 2009