

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Organisation

Entry ID: AWE0060

Creative Leisure Movement

(1970 -)

Born 19700101

Summary

The Creative Leisure Movement formed out of the Children's Library and Crafts Movement after the death of Doris Rivett and her sister Elsie.

Published resources

Journal

Voices : a selection of work by members of the Northern Beaches Creative Leisure Writing Group., Northern Beaches Creative Leisure Writing Group, 1982-

Book

The living stone and other poems, Ruth Drobnak, 1987

Resource Section

Rivett, Doris Mary (1896 - 1969), Godden, J., 2006

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

Inner West Council, Balmain Library, Local History Archive

Issy Wyner Collection Box 83 Miscellaneous

Issy Wyner Collection Box 33/1-5 Child Care Centres

Northern Beaches Council Library

Nan Bosler interviewed on her involvement with the Creative Leisure Movement.

Norma Fogarty

Fiona Winter

National Library of Australia, Oral History and Folklore Collection

[Margaret Walker interviewed by Barbara Blackman \[sound recording\]](#)

State Library of New South Wales

Creative Leisure Movement \(Sydney, N.S.W.\) collection

Creative Leisure Movement \(Children's Library and Crafts Movement\) records, 1960-1977, including minutes, correspondence and annual reports

Author Details

Elle Morrell

Created 9 February 2001
Last modified 29 April 2009