Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0081

Farmer, Margaret Anne

(1933 -)

Born	19331026, Melbourne Victoria Australia
Occupation	Psychotherapist, Social worker

Summary

Margaret Farmer was a social worker and psychotherapist. She was a foundation member of a group of child care centres established in the 1970s in Caulfield, Victoria. She was a volunteer visitor for 17 years of the Anti-Cancer Council Breast Cancer Support Service.

Details

Margaret Farmer was awarded her B.A. Dip. Social Studies in 1956 and her B.Social Work in 1978, both from the University of Melbourne.

She was a member of the Women’s Electoral Lobby, International Women’s Development Agency, Amnesty International, Coalition against Trafficking Women, Austcare, UN NA, Soroptimist International, Unifem and Genealogical Society of Victoria.

Margaret is the daughter of Margery Johnson (née Warren), and mother of Felicity, Celia and David.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details
Elle Morrell

Created 14 February 2001
Last modified 5 April 2019