

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0095

Spunner, Suzanne Sylvia

(1951 -)

Born 19511111, Dromana Victoria Australia

Occupation Art historian, Critic, Playwright, Writer

Summary

Feminist playwright Suzanne Spunner's works include: Not still lives; Edna for the garden; Running up a dress; Dragged Screaming to Paradise; Overcome by Chlorine; Radio for Help and The Ingkata's Wife.

A founding member of the Home Cooking Theatre Company, in 1987 Spunner moved with her family to Darwin and established Paradise Productions. A board member of The Australian National Playwrights Centre, in Sydney, and 24 HR ART: the Northern Territory Centre for Contemporary Art, she has been the recipient of Fellowships from the Literature Board of The Australian Council in 1988, 1991 and 1994. Both Dragged Screaming to Paradise and The Ingkata's Wife were highly commended by The Jessie Litchfield Award for Northern Territory Literature.

Events

1977 - 1978

Co-ordinator of the feminist journal Lip

1975 - 1975

Co-ordinator of the International Women's Film Festival in Melbourne

1979 - 1979

Conducted a weekly radio programme on theatre for 3RRR FM

1978 - 1980

Film and theatre reviews, articles and interviews in journals and magazines

1972 - 1972

Graduated BA Hons from the University of Melbourne

1973 - 1973

Graduated Dip Ed from the University of Melbourne

1980 - 1980

Lecturer in Australian studies and theatre for the School of Drama at the Victorian College of the Arts

1979 - 1979

Married Ian Gray (later Chief Magistrate of Victoria), they have 2 children

1994 - 1994

One of 12 playwrights chosen to represent Australia at the 3rd International Women Playwrights' Conference in Adelaide

1988 - 1988

Recipient of a Fellowship from The Literature Board of The Australia Council

1991 - 1991

Recipient of a Fellowship from The Literature Board of The Australia Council

1994 - 1994

Recipient of a Fellowship from The Literature Board of The Australia Council

1976 - 1978

Reviewer of the Melbourne Times

1981 - 1981

Reviewer of the Melbourne Times

1978 - 1978

Seconded to Open University in the United Kingdom

1977 - 1979

Senior tutor at Deakin University

1979 - 1979

Victorian editor of Theatre Australia

1987 - 1987

With family moved to Darwin

Published resources

Play

Running up a dress, a mother daughter dialogue, Spunner, Suzanne, 1988

Dragged screaming to paradise, Spunner, Suzanne, 1994

Not still lives: a play and an exhibition about Margaret Preston and Thea Proctor, Spunner, Suzanne, 1989

Edna for the garden, Spunner, Suzanne, 1989

Safe 'n sound : the driver as mother, Spunner, Suzanne, 1989

Edited Book

Who's Who of Australian Women, Lofthouse, Andrea, 1982

Australian women's drama : texts and feminisms, Tait, Peta, 1953- and Schafer, Elizabeth, 1959-, 1997

Videorecording

Tea and pictures, Spunner, Suzanne, 1989

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

Special Collections, Academy Library, UNSW@ADFA

Suzanne Spunner manuscript collection

Fryer Library and Department of Special Collections

Dragged...screaming to paradise by Suzanne Spunner.

Author Details

Elle Morrell

Created 15 February 2001

Last modified 29 October 2018