Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH000865

Portrait of Sister Betty Crocker, Royal Australian Army Nursing Corps (RAANC)

Repository	Australian War Memorial, Research Centre
Reference	P02044.002
Date Range	1951 - 1951
Formats	Photograph

Details

Portrait of Sister Betty Crocker, Royal Australian Army Nursing Corps (RAANC), modelling the a new RAANC uniform, worn with black stockings, black lace up shoes, black leather gloves and a black shoulder strap handbag. Tailored in Adelaide, this particular uniform was the very first one made to the new pattern and issued for the new RAANC (as distinct from its predecessor the Royal Australian Army Nursing Service). It was issued to Sister Crocker, the first Sister to enlist for Korea in South Australia.?Australia: Victoria, Melbourne, St Kilda Road, Victoria Barracks

Author Details
Anne Heywood

Created 4 April 2003
Last modified 4 January 2018