

Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH000866

Six Sisters of the Royal Australian Army Nursing Corps (RAANC) wave farewell from the gangplank of MV New Australia on embarkation for service in Malaya.

---

Repository Australian War Memorial, Research Centre

---

Reference DUN/55/0824/EC

---

Date Range 1-Sep-55 - 1-Sep-55

---

Formats Photograph

---

Details

Australia. 1955-09-01. Six Sisters of the Royal Australian Army Nursing Corps (RAANC) wave farewell from the gangplank of MV New Australia on embarkation for service in Malaya. The team, which was later increased to eight, served in British hospitals at Kamunting, Kuala Lumpur and in the Cameron Highlands, nursing not only Australians, but New Zealanders, British, Gurkhas and members of their families.

Author Details

Anne Heywood

Created 4 April 2003

Last modified 4 January 2018