

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH000925

Ross-King, Alice, MM (Sister, b.1887 – d.1968)

Repository Australian War Memorial, Research Centre

Reference PR02082

Date Range 1915 - 1949

Access Open

Details

Papers of Sister Alice Ross-King who served with the Australian Army Nursing Service during the First World War. The collection consists of her three diaries, a typed transcript of the diaries, a Florence Nightingale certificate and three Red Cross citations. The diaries cover the years 1915-1919 when she worked in Egypt (1st Australian General Hospital), Rouen (1st Australian General Hospital), St Omar (10th Stationary Hospital) and Armentieres (2nd Casualty Clearing Station). In one entry Alice Ross-King recounts events for which she earned a Military Medal while working at the 2nd Casualty Clearing Station.^{?1}. Three diaries, covering January 1915-February 1919, written by Alice Ross-King during service as a nurse with the Australian Army Nursing Service during First World War, and post-War voyage home to Australia.^{?2}. Typed transcript of diaries (90 pages).^{?3}. Certificate for award of Florence Nightingale Medal (1949).^{?4}. Three citations from various Red Cross offices for the Florence Nightingale Medal.

Author Details

Anne Heywood

Created 8 August 2003
Last modified 4 January 2018