

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0163

Dundas, Roslyn

(1978 -)

Born 1 January, 1978, Canberra Australian Capital Territory Australia

Occupation Feminist, Parliamentarian

Summary

A member of the Australian Democrats, Roslyn Dundas was elected to the Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory (ACT) representing the electorate of Ginninderra, in 2001. She was the youngest woman ever to be elected to an Australian Parliament, but was unfortunately defeated at the 2004 election. In 2008 she was appointed Director of the ACT Council of Social Service.

Details

After being educated via the public school system Dundas commenced her BA at the Australian National University. In 2000 she was General Secretary of the ANU student body as well as a member of the National Union of Students' National Women's Committee.

Dundas has worked as a trade union organiser and as a young women's development co-ordinator at the YWCA. She was a participant in the National Youth Constitutional Forum in 2000 and was selected as a reserve for the National Youth Roundtable 2001.

She is an active member and supporter of the Women's Electoral Lobby, the Youth Council of the ACT and the YWCA of Canberra.

Sources: http://www.act.democrates.org.au/roslyn_who.htm accessed 7/11/01;
http://act.democrates.org.au/roslyn_main.htm accessed 7/11/01;
http://www.deet.gov.au/ministers/kemp/feb01/k16_050201_attachment.htm accessed 7/11/01

Published resources

Resource Section

Vote 1 Roslyn Dundas, ACT Democrats, http://act.democrats.org.au/roslyn_main.htm

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Site Exhibition

From Lady Denman to Katy Gallagher: A Century of Women's Contributions to Canberra, Australian Women's Archives Project, 2013, <http://www.womenaustralia.info/exhib/ldkg>

Archival resources

National Library of Australia, Manuscript Collection

Records relating to the Pamela Denoon Lecture series, 1989-2013

Author Details

Anne Heywood

Created 7 November 2001

Last modified 26 February 2019